YOUTH'S MURDER CONFESSION 'LIE'

The 24-year-old "Go Straight" youth, who last June appealed to the people of Palm Springs for help in finding a job, and who last week returned here and confessed to a murder, was found to be lying when he was given a lie detector test.

Turned over to San Bernardino Detective Lt. Bart Keene by local police, David M. Sex, alias Delmar Speer, was taken to Los Angeles where he was given the lie detector test. Lt. Keen reported that the tests showed that Sex "was a professional liar."

WHEN ARRESTED in Palm Springs on a warrant out of Los Angeles, Sex told a bizarre story of murder on a lonely stretch of road between San Bernardino and Victorville, and claimed that he had killed a "traveling salesman" by stabbing him with an ice pick, and then hitting him with a rock.

Chrysler Forced to Close Plants Due to Office Strike

DETROIT. UPI — Chrysler Corporation's production of 1959 cars was stalled today when it was forced to close all of its assembly and body plants because of a strike by 8,000 office workers.

Most of the company's 65,000 office workers reported for work as usual at the beginning of the first shift this morning, some of them crossing picket lines established by the office workers.

BUT REFUSAL OF unionized truck drivers to cross the picket lines with truck loads of new car bodies and difficulties in carrying out operations without the salaried workers soon forced the company to close all of the plants turning out new cars.

The last assembly plant to close down was the Plymouth and Dodge assembly plant at Newark, Del., where the company sent 2,500 production workers home because it could get along "just so long" without an office staff.

Three Reach Top Of El Capitan

YOSEMITE — UPI — Three daring mountain climbers reached the top of 3,604 foot El Capitan this morning after apparently climbing all night.

The three were 175 feet from the top of the granite monolith when they stopped climbing Tuesday night with the announcement they would resume this morning.

HOWEVER, THIS morning all three were spotted atop the sheer cliff. Apparently their anxiety to be the first to ascend the abrupt south face of the mountain, together with the fact they were so close to success, induced them to complete their climb at night.

They were last seen Tuesday night at their camp on a narrow ledge at the 2,100-foot level.

The climbers are Warren Harding, 34, West Sacramento; George Whitmore, 27, Fresno; and Wayne Merry, 28, San Jose.

THEY AND SEVERAL others have been trying to scale the face of El Capitan for more than a year. Today was the 13th day of their latest attempt. El Capitan's peak is 7,649 feet above sea level. Sunday hikers can take a relatively easy seven-mile walk up the back side, but the face, as steep as a skyscraper most of the way, never has been scaled.

THERE WAS A flurry of excitement Tuesday when a figure was seen only 50 feet from the top. However, it was not one of the climbers, but Ellen Seaby, 24-year-old Stanford graduate student, who went down in the hope of greeting the climbers.

She and John Whitmer, 32, San Jose, had dropped a line 150 feet down the cliff, to the disgust of the climbers who wanted to make it all the way on their own. The pair belong to the climbers' support party.

The most dangerous part of the climb was near the top. There the granite was more weathered, increasing the danger of its splitting off and causing the climbers' steel footholds to snap loose.

East Germany Backs Down on 'Force' Threat; U.S. Has 600 Planes Ready

James Curley, 'Development Political Boss, Dies Today

Succumbs Eight Days Prior to 84th Birthday

BOSTON. UPI — James Michael Curley, one of the last of America's big city political bosses, died today, just eight days before his 84th birthday.

The former Massachusetts governor died at 8:55 a.m. after an emergency surgery at City Hospital where he had been recuperating from an abdominal operation performed Nov. 4.

THE VETERAN political warrior had described the critical operation as "just another campaign."

Curley thus became the second former Boston mayor to die within a week. Former Mayor Frederick W. Mansfield died Nov. 6 at the age of 81.

The life-long Democrat had made good progress during the week following his operation, but he suffered a sudden weak spell Tuesday night. He was taken into emergency surgery shortly after.

CURLEY AMAZED physicians only two years ago, with his rapid recovery from a massive internal hemorrhage caused by a fall that fractured both shoulders. The day following the surgery he was wise-cracking with his doctors.

Curley lost consciousness shortly after dawn today. Earlier, Dr. James V. Sacchetti, assistant superintendent of City Hospital, said in a bulletin at 7:25 a.m.: "Former Gov. Curley is still holding on, but his condition is weakening. His breathing is slow and more labored and his blood pressure is dropping."

Curley was a prominent political figure in Massachusetts for a half century. A life-long Democrat, he is often described as the last of the big city political bosses.

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. — UPI — The United States told Russia today it will continue its rocket development program as long as the Soviet Union maintains its "aggressive imperialism."

U. S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge told the United Nations Main Political Committee that Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Valerian A. Zorin suffered from "a malignant and tragic hallucination" in charging that the United States plans to use outer space for military purposes, including an attack on Russia.

ZORIN TOLD THE 81-nation committee such reports should not be dismissed as "ill-advised or fantasy." He demanded support for Russia's resolution calling for prohibition of military use of outer space and the dismantling of foreign military bases — from which most of the Soviet Union could be attacked by 1,500-mile-range U. S. rockets.

Zorin charged that the United States wanted to ban "the intercontinental ballistic missiles which are in the arsenals of the Soviet Union" while maintaining its own foreign bases for the launching of intermediate rocket missiles against Russia.

"WE CANNOT TAKE the Soviet remarks at face value," Lodge said. "They indicate either a true lack of understanding of the situation or a deliberate attempt to mislead this committee. These bases are not foreign at all, in the way the Soviet Union uses the word. They are mutual bases which are to be used mutually for common defense — and stress defense — by common consent — and I stress consent . . ."

CROSBY ORDERS GREATEST CROP OF MOUSTACHES EVER

Crooner Bing Crosby, who has been so eminently successful in everything he has tackled, is going all out to conquer a brand new field.

As Honorary Mayor of Palm Desert, Crosby is campaigning to bring about the greatest crop of moustaches, sideburns, mutton chops, vandykes, side whiskers and goatees in the history of the desert area.

CROSBY HAS ISSUED a proclamation to that effect in connection with Palm Desert's first annual Gay Nineties Week, Dec. 3 through 7, which celebrates the 12th birthday of the desert resort community.

Mayor Crosby's proclamation also directs every man, woman and child in Palm Desert to be garbed in the fashions of the Gay Nineties period.

Testifying to Crosby's serious intent in the matter, he has decreed that any person violating his proclamation shall be subject to a fine.

THE PROCLAMATION follows: "Whereas, Palm Desert is celebrating its 12th birthday, "Whereas, Palm Desert is the land of fun and sun, "Whereas Palm Desert is an enthusiastic and lively community,

"Whereas, Palm Desert is always ready for new exciting and wholesome events,

"Now therefore, I, Bing Crosby, Honorary Mayor of the City of Palm Desert, with all the powers vested in me do hereby decree:

"THE WEEK of Dec. 3 through 7 in the year of our Lord 1958 shall be known as Gay Nineties

Romanians Face Harsh, New 'Reign of Terror'

FRANKFORT, Germany. UPI — A harsh new "reign of terror" penal code has been imposed on Romania but the Communist regime has concealed it from the people.

The code, which includes the death sentence for minor embezzlement or for having contact with foreigners, has never been published or broadcast even in part by the Romanian press or radio.

Romanians have learned of the penal code through Radio Free Europe in Munich, which has been transmitting the text regularly to Romania.

Near Capture

Burglary Suspects Escape Officer

Patrolman Matt Calac, while chasing a speeder on Palm Canyon Drive last night noticed a car parked in the Mobile service station on the north end of town, and later checking led Calac into one of the nearest on-the-spot burglary apprehensions in local police records.

As the officer sped after a speeder, he could not help but notice a car stopped in the darkened service station, and when he returned to the scene stopped his car to investigate.

WHEN HE GOT OUT of the patrol car, he heard a voice from in back of the station say "Hell, man, let's get scarce," and immediately with screeching tires a

Believe Aim Is to Force Recognition

East German Premier Talks On Unification

BERLIN. UPI — Communist East Germany said today that the Western Allies were occupying West Berlin illegally and threatened, with Soviet aid, to take "practical" steps to unite the divided city.

But East German Premier Otto Grotewohl denounced as "sensational" Western speculation that the Communists might be planning a new blockade of West Berlin.

IN WASHINGTON, American officials said that if the Communists planned any such new blockade, the United States has more than 600 four-engined aircraft available "almost immediately" to start a massive airlift to this city.

The speculation arose from Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's statement that the Soviets would transfer to the East Germans control over the Western allied lifelines to Berlin.

GROTEWOHL SAID the main point in Khrushchev's speech was not Berlin but the need of East-West German negotiations to bring about a German Confederation and a peace treaty.

The statement indicated the Soviets might have created the new Berlin dispute in an effort to force the West to accept Moscow's proposal to hold four-power talks with East and West German participation to bring about a peace treaty. This would have the effect of gaining indirect recognition for the East German regime, which the West considers illegal.

Whatever the reason, the Communists did not appear ready to push the present situation to a dangerous degree.

THE EAST GERMAN Communist Party newspaper Neues Deutschland warned the Western powers against using military force to pursue their "adventurous goals," perhaps a reference to U. S. determination to defend its rights in Berlin with force if necessary.

But it took a conciliatory tone by noting that "all problems can be solved in connection with the conclusion of a peace treaty."

Grotewohl followed the same tone in his news conference comments.

HE SAID HE believed Khrushchev in his speech, made in Moscow Monday, set up a goal for getting all foreign troops out of Germany. He added, however, that the Russians would not withdraw their troops from Germany unless the Western powers do so, too.

Post 519. Participating were, from left, Dr. James E. Potter, commander of the Disabled American Veterans; Patane; Jay Morrison, master of ceremonies and also a member of Post 519; and Dean Picknell, commander of the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

AS THE TWO MEN fled the scene of the burglary, Calac called for a police net closing up the area, but the results of the blockade were negative.

Calac said that the men had made their escape in a blue car.

Nude Body Found

Authorities Hunt Slayer Of High School Senior, 17

LOS ANGELES (UP) — Authorities of Ventura and Los Angeles Counties joined today in a search for the slayer of a 17-year-old high school senior whose body was found buried under a pile of rocks.

The nude body of Daryl Kelch, 17, Saugus, was found Tuesday near Grimes Canyon Road, three miles east of Fillmore in Ventura County. The youth had been shot three times with a .25-caliber weapon, twice in the body and once through the throat.

A FAMILY ON a rock-hunting expedition found the body. All the youth's personal belongings were missing and identification was made by a ring found on the body. The ring was from the William S. Hart High School in Saugus and was inscribed with the initials "D. K."

David Brown, vice principal of the school, made the identification. He said young Kelch was one of the most popular boys in his class and never had been in trouble.

KELCH LAST WAS heard from when he telephoned his girl friend Karen Deadmon, in Saugus Monday evening to say he did not think he would be able to catch a ride from Los Angeles in time to keep a date with her.

He had hitchhiked to Los Angeles with a school chum, Douglas Austin, 15, to visit the younger boy's girl friend.

Kelch left Austin at the girl's home about 5 p.m. to hitchhike a ride at Sepulveda and Santa Monica Boulevards. When Austin arrived at the intersection a short time later Kelch was gone.

MRS. GLADYS KELCH, the boy's mother, said she was somewhat worried when Daryl failed to return home Monday night but delayed filing a missing persons report because "no news was good news."

Although a preliminary examination disclosed no sexual abuse, Los Angeles sheriff's officers felt complete absence of all the youth's clothing pointed to a sex degenerate as the slayer.

Sgt. H.A. Waldrip said evidence at the scene pointed to the fact that the boy was killed elsewhere and his body taken to the canyon.

A roundup of known sex deviates was started today and authorities appealed to all persons who might have been in the vicinity of the Sepulveda Boulevard intersection and might have seen the boy picked up to contact the Sheriff's Department.

Presley Roughs It on Maneuvers Without Friends

BAD NAUHEIM, Germany (UP) — Pvt. Elvis Presley, the only GI in Germany with personal bodyguards, roughed it in the exposed wilds of the Taunus Mountains today. His two burly "good friends" had to be content with cracking their knuckles in a luxury hotel here.

Army sources indicated that the rock-n-rolling GI was doing fine, even without being guarded by his husky pals, as a reconnaissance jeep driver.

But the bodyguards from Memphis and the singer's father and grandmother, with whom they are staying here, may soon journey en masse to the 3rd Armored Division's maneuver area to check on how he's making out.

Presley's imported but shy protectors are Lamar Fike, 23, who stands 6 feet and weighs 250 pounds, and Bobby West, 22, also 6 feet but a mere 185 pounds. The singer's father called them "nice young fellas" and insisted they are "just good friends."

The Army was non-committal about one of its enlisted men having two bodyguards. Spokesmen said that whatever Presley does on his own time is his own affair so long as it does not interfere with his Army duties.

Church Theory Of Evolution To Be Discussed

"What is the position of the Catholic Church regarding the theory of evolution? How do you reconcile the Bible narrative of the creation of man with modern scientific discoveries?"

Those and other similar questions will be answered tonight by a Catholic priest, Father Raymond Beaudry, in a lecture at St. Theresa's Auditorium, 2900 East Ramon Road, at 8 o'clock.

"The fascinating discoveries of archeologists and anthropologists sometimes make one wonder at the simplicity of the Bible telling of the creation of the first man," Father Beaudry said.

"Does the scientist have to forget his faith when he comes to the origin of the human race? Does the believer turn his back to the Bible when he listens to the scientist?" Father Beaudry said that there is no real opposition between science and the Bible.

The public is invited to his lecture.

Baby by Lion

Most Terrible 90 Minutes Ever Told by Mother

(Editor's Note: Lion tamer Liborio Ronisville held a circus lion at bay with his eyes for 90 minutes Monday while a baby slept within reach of the beast's claws. It happened in the kitchen of a home in Vighizzolo, Italy, while the baby's mother was held by a policeman outside. Here is the mother's story of the most agonizing hour and a half of her life.)

By MARIA MADAMA PUORRI
As told to United Press Intl.
VIGHIZZOLO, Italy (UPI) — I lived, second by second, the most terrible 90 minutes of my life. I was preparing our lunch in the kitchen. My husband Sabatino, 32, was working in a factory two miles away. Teresa, my 2-month-old baby, was sleeping on a few blankets on the top of my sewing machine. My children, Carmelo, 5, and Luigi, 1½, also were in the room. Tonino and Savino were at school. It was just a peaceful rainy morning.

SUDDENLY THAT beast jumped in through the glass panel of the door, from the courtyard. I screamed, and the beast jumped out through the same broken panel.

I wondered if I was dreaming but Carmelo and Luigi were staring at the broken panel too. I clutched them and I knelt on the floor to peep out in the courtyard. At that moment the lion jumped in again, right over our heads.

I screamed again and staggered out of the kitchen, clutching the arm of Carmelo and Luigi. I fled through the courtyard out into the street.

I MET A MAN wearing overalls who rushed into the courtyard without looking at me. "Be careful," I screamed. "There is a big beast in there." I did not know then it was a lion.

I started comforting Carmelo who was crying. "It's nothing, dear," I told him. "Now everything is over, and you . . . Teresa! I screamed. I had forgotten the little girl in the kitchen. The lion was there. I ran through the courtyard again but the man wearing the overalls prevented me from entering the room.

"DON'T CRY, DON'T CRY," he told me. "The lion could get more and more excited."

Somebody grabbed my arms and pushed me away. I stood near the gate of the courtyard, in the street, sobbing over the shoulder of a Carabinieri (National policeman.)

They told me the man wearing the overalls was the tamer. "He will rescue your daughter," they said, "do not worry."

But I saw the man talking to a police officer looking onto the kitchen. The officer shook his head and handed his submachinegun to the tamer.

"DON'T SHOOT NOW," I screamed. "You might kill my baby. You might kill my baby." The man with the overalls shook his head.

'Youth Appreciation Week' Deserving of Commendation

Together with Optimist clubs throughout the North American continent the Palm Springs Optimist club is celebrating "Youth Appreciation Week" Nov. 10 through 16. The purpose of this observance is to point out that more than 95% of the youth are law abiding and constructive, grow up to become good citizens, and that fundamentally the youth of today are no different than the youth of the past score of generations.

Over 2,000 years ago the wise old Greek philosopher, Socrates made the following statement on the youth of his day:

The children now love luxury, they have bad manners, contempt for authority, they show disrespect for elders, and love chatter in place of exercise. They no longer arise when elders enter the room. They contradict their parents, chatter before company, gobble up dainties at the table, cross their legs, and tyrannize over their teachers.

This same statement could be made today without any basic change. It is true that youth resents a certain amount of authority. Yet, they hold to the tradition of youth which basically is law abiding and a desire to achieve a respected place in society.

Optimists International should be commended for the part they are taking in promoting respect for the youth of today. This movement has been long overdue.

The Unfaced Fac

WASHINGTON, D. C. — C. L. Closselooker, the research man, was having a look at the Administration's latest foreign aid proposal, an additional $70 million for health and education overseas. Why the close scrutiny? Any jokers in the pack?

"There's something left out," said Mr. Closselooker, snuffling like a hound among the fine print. "It just isn't here. You might think that nearly twenty years of experience in this sort of thing would teach us to find the handle."

LET'S SEE. THE foreign aid theory is essentially one of missionizing. We make the Hottentots more like us — we Westernize them — and all will be well, or at least much better. In this, we and the Communists are doing the same thing. We're both trying to homogenize humanity.

"But something's been left out," insisted Mr. Closselooker who goes in for facts and doesn't care for philosophizing. "The fact is, according to the World Health Organization, that all nations are spending about $30 billion a year on medical care, public and private.

"BUT THE SAME nations are spending only $1 million for what is called the physiology of reproduction, meaning birth control. Mind you — that's $30,000-Millions to prolong life and only $1 million to space the arrival of new life. More people; same bowl of rice. Is that the way to fight hunger and under-privilege?"

Mr. Closselooker's question answered itself. There is a certain amount of bigotry on both sides of this West vs. East missionizing contest. Here in the New World we developed a great industrial production machine which is the basis of our prosperity and freedom.

OUR POPULATION grew, but our ability to feed it, clothe it, educate it, employ it and improve its living standards grew at the same time. Western foreign aiders are so impressed with this success story that they make a universal religion of it. They insist that it will work in all parts of the earth.

"They ought to look more closely at the facts," said Mr. Closselooker, a practitioner of his own preachments. "The industrialization of this country took a full century. It absorbed enormous treasure troves of raw materials. It had a frontier which allowed expansion of a tripling population. But where else on earth do these situations reoccur?"

"IT IS BETTER to have no program than an unbalanced one. The United Nations recently did a study on it called 'Report on the World Social Situation.' This study suggests, among other things, how artificially stimulated 'health' can cancel out the economic development of a backward area."

But nobody pays any heed, eh?

"The foreign aiders don't pay any heed," amended Mr. Closselooker. "Population control is a controversial subject. If you take sides, you lose funds. Last December the United States took the lead among 88 nations to fight malaria. Secretary Dulles turned over $7 million to fight the Anopheles mosquito. It sounded like a great opportunity to win friendship among the so-called uncommitted nations."

Well, wasn't it? "ONLY FROM A propaganda viewpoint," said Mr. Closselooker. "Let me quote from Dr. Robert C. Cook, editor of the Population Bulletin: 'It is not surprising that technical aid programs have become a forceful instrument of foreign policy, used by both the East and the West. . . . unless birth rates are cut substantially in these areas, the blessings of malaria eradication cannot be realized.'"

And this is the factor which is always left out of foreign aid for health programs. "It is the missing link of logic," said Mr. Closselooker.

Dear Abby . . .

DEAR ABBY: Don't you think if a person gets all A's and B's on her report card she should get something for it? Especially if her parents have an above-average income? I always dread for report cards to come out not because of the marks but because the kids always ask me what I got and I don't know what to say. Even kids who get worse marks than me get something. Thank you.

"A's and B's" DEAR "A's and B's": Many parents (and yours are obviously in this group) feel that a child should do his best whether he is rewarded or not. One youngster put it this way. "It ain't what I get I DO — it's what I get if I DON'T."

DEAR ABBY: What kind of nonsense did you tell that poor spineless chump who complained because he was "outvoted" when it came to the menu for Sunday dinner. "Sneak home your own steak and maybe the frau will agree to cook it for you!" BIG DEAL! My advice would be: "Give the kids their lumps and send them off to bed suppress. Then, to the wife who cooks only hot dogs and hamburgers because the kids like it — give her a good chop on the jaw and set her before the stove to prepare meat fit for a man to eat. Most sincerely, R. G. R. ("Wears The PANTS")

DEAR "WEARS": Henry the Eighth is the only man in history who gave his wives a choice between a "hot steak" and a "cold chop" — and got away with it. Your solution is too risky for the average 20th century man.

DEAR ABBY: When my husband and I give a cocktail party we borrow chairs, glasses, and ice cubes from our neighbors across the hall. They are a nice couple and we like them a lot but they are old enough to be our parents. We'd invite them but we're afraid they wouldn't fit into our crowd. My husband says they're not invited. Do you think he is embarrassed to borrow these things from them when we should either ask them to our parties or quite borrowing?

NEWLYWEDS DEAR NEWLYWEDS: Invite them. (They might even fool you and decline). But if they come, they could possibly contribute more to your party than the props. Age has nothing to do with being good company.

DEAR ABBY: This may sound terrible but it is true. I have lost all respect for my mother. She will tell me to do something and I know she won't say anything if I don't do it, so I don't. I have been asked to clean up my room but I keep on letting it go because my mother will do it if I wait long enough. I am 15 years old and admit I am spoiled because I get just about anything I want, but I am not happy. My girlfriend does the family laundry on week-ends, has to do dishes every night and doesn't even get an allowance and she is much happier than am. I can't figure it out. Abby, can you?

UNHAPPY DEAR UNHAPPY: The child who is given responsibility at home, and is made to toe the mark, is always much happier. Children need to be disciplined to feel secure.

DEAR ABBY: I read your column every day to see if I can find someone as crazy as I was. I lived with this man for 15 years and we have two children. Not once did he ask me if I wanted to get married. When we got together he had nothing, but now he is sifting pretty. He worked hard for what he has but I helped him. Everyone thinks we are man and wife. I am sick of bringing up the subject because he says a little piece of paper doesn't make any difference. He doesn't run around on me and he treats me better than some married men treat their wives, but how do I get him to legalize my name?

LIVING IN SIN DEAR LIVING: (You are EXISTING; he is LIVING). Perhaps he doesn't realize that you two could go quietly to a clergyman and have him perform a simple ceremony. No filing, no public notices, no waiting. Ask your clergyman.

DEAR ABBY: A few weeks ago a fellow named DANNY wrote to you asking how to meet a nice woman. Object—marriage. I was in his boat a few years back and I tried for two years, after my wife died, to find a nice woman, but the result was zero. Finally I advertised in a newspaper for a housekeeper. Did I get answers? About a hundred of them. To make a long story short a nice, single lady, age 40, got the job. She has been here ever since. I married her and no two people have ever been happier.

GUY DEAR ABBY: My problem is an overly neat wife. She gave away my fishing hat and all the fishing clothes I had. She also cleaned me out of every comfortable pair of shoes I wore for gardening and around the house. My High School sweater is also missing and I kept it for 14 years. As soon as I get used to something she gives it away. She says she can't stand shabby things around. How can I cure her once and for all?

PLAIN MAD DEAR PLAIN: Every woman has a favorite extra comfortable old girdle. Confront her and see if that doesn't snap her back to attention.

For a personal reply, write to ABBY in care of this paper. Enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

If you want a collection of Abby's best letters and answers in one book, ask your bookdealer to get "DEAR ABBY" for you.

The hek with politics
Let's get some action,
Join up with Nevada
For a new attraction.

I don't know the gentleman's name but he apparently knows me.

For he stopped me on Palm Canyon Drive, stuck a well-manicured finger in my solar plexus and said:

"Secede from California to join Arizona, as you said Saturday, just because they went Republican and so did we?"

"That's the gummiest-minded thinking I've heard for some time."

WHEN I STARTED to remonstrate, he interrupted.

"If you're going to do a Harry Oliver and promote secession, why not be smart. Think, Buster, think."

"What good will it do us to run a shoe-string east and become part of Arizona? Just because they are Republican, too."

"Wouldn't do a thing for us."

"BUT SUPPOSING we went cater-corner, or maybe it's due north—I haven't looked at the map for a while — and ran a shoe-string strip into Nevada."

"Then we could put in an added attraction for tourists."

"Our parking meters wouldn't be the only places we could push in nickels."

"And we could go to the city limits, staying carefully back out of arm's reach, and stick out our tongues at Sheriff Joe Rice."

"Think it over, chum, it's an idea."

JAY BUDSEY, who serves as host at the Town and Country's elixir emporium, is against women's handbags. Not the run of the mill small ones, but those that are as big as a junior steamer trunk.

"They come in, sit down, plant this young trunk in front of them and then want me to reach around to answer their wishes."

"I have to peer around and reach around. I'm thinking seriously of installing those dime and two-bit lockers."

SPEAKING of these big handbags the ladies carry, I had an idea one time and suggested it to Mrs. G but nothing came of it. It was a dark night and she was rummaging through her bag as we stood on the front stoop in the rain, looking for the door key.

Then, like a flash, the idea came to me.

"LOOK, HONEY," said I helpfully. "How about this idea?"

"Get a couple of flash light batteries, rig 'em up with a bulb so that it will light up when you open the bag."

"Isn't that a good idea?"

"YES," SHE SAID, "but instead of thinking up all of those bright ideas, why don't you reach into your own pockets, and between the two dimes you are hoarding there, you'll probably find your keys to the front door."

Well, that's the way it goes. Genius is never recognized at home.

Postcard

Up with the birds this full morning. The birds around here are noisy creatures. "No rest for the weary," they holler. "Get up! Everybody up! Up!"

Live in the country and you have no need for alarm clocks. The country is for the birds, if you ask me.

FRIEND OF MINE is writing a book about life in the Great Outdoors. A reminiscent, down-on-the-farm sort of thing.

There are great financial rewards in outdoors books. Deep-breathing books. Books full of new-mown hay and apple orchards: "I Was a Farmer for the FBI."

SUCH BOOKS COMBINE nostalgia and good living. Patriotism, health and an honest income from the Soil Bank. It is enough to make your red corpuscles pulse.

Allow me to tell you: There is a limbo between the city and the country that Uncle Sugar left unsung. Its name is Suburbia.

WE SUBURBANITES do not plow the honest soil. We merely fiddle it with snide and trowel. We are pseudo farmers. (I planted a whole bed of pseudos this year. But the thrills got them before I could sow.)

In the belt of land called Suburbia, nothing grows. This is a curious feature of this high-priced real estate. It is absolutely barren. Beyond us, the wheat will grow waist-high. In the city, dandelions sprout through cracks in the sidewalk.

BUT MOVE ONE cent-seventy inch into the suburbs and you are in the Sahara. It will not grow a radish without a Supreme Court decision.

Well, suburban people are hardy. The last of the pioneer stock. The type that cut down the forests. We would cut down forests if we had them. We are that hardy.

YOU DO NOT HAVE to cut down forests, however. I had a pretty good oak tree on this property. And one day when I was out of town, the electric light people came up and cut it down so they could put up a light pole.

There were a few madrones on the hillside. They slid into the back yard during the last rains. It cost the price of a small yacht to have them removed.

This left the old homestead wide open for cultivation. Nothing in the way of progress. Everything up from zero!

That is exactly what came up: Zero.

OH ME, OH MY, dear. We have loaded this good earth with Plent-GRO. We have laced it with acids and anti-acids. We have imported earthworms. Earthworms are supposed to work on your soil while you sleep. Turned out I worked on the soil and the earthworms slept.

We had one earth-shaking day when my child came shouting: "Something's growing! Come quick!"

It turned out to be a Poppy Day poppy I had thrown away in the driveway. But it gave us a few high moments.

I THINK ONE REASON we fail is suburban ladies do not care for ordinary flowers. The kind that always grew on such real estate. No, they want exotic plants.

"Over here we will put the African chrysanthemums," they say. "And here we will plant a darling bed of wild Swiss edelweiss."

Naturally these plants peek through the ground and can see immediately they are not in Africa or Switzerland. They then die of homesickness.

BUT IF YOU SUGGEST daisies — I think daisies would grow here. If you suggest daisies, you are ruining the social standing. A country square.

"But we need a formal English garden!" To go with the Tudor architecture."

Pretty soon you are out planting a hedge maze. "Just like the one we saw at Stratford-on-Avon. At that cute hotel. Or was it in Germany?"

Wherever it was, it isn't here.

EARL WILSON:

Frank Sinatra 'Assault' Denied

NEW YORK I won't let them do that to Frankie!

Police have been told by the Harwyn night club that a photographer's charge that Frank Sinatra ordered a chauffeur to run over him is false.

Joe Bernardi, the doorman, witness to the incident, said, "Frank didn't even use any swear words." When the photog said, "This is my job," Frank said, "Why don't you get another job?" —but that ended it.

The photog, who claims to have been hit by Frank's fender, spent 45 minutes in the Harwyn after Frank left without mentioning the accusation he made later, so police were told. But he did say he'd had a run-in with Sinatra two years ago and was still angry about it.

isms or bon mots on the pleasure of being good and of going to church, rush 'em in to this sinner.

Phone call from Errol Flynn: "Earl! Errol. That item of yours about me going to marry Beverly Adlan is going to get me shot by two people. One is Pat" — his wife — "for we've never divorced or separated. The other is my son Sean, because that's his girl and he's kinda hot on her." (I then asked him the name of another girl he's been at El Morocco with). "Geez, she's German. I don't know her name. I've been with her only twice."

Today's poem: "I met a little salesgirl — I met her in the fall — And every time I kissed her — She cried, 'Will that be all?'"

Strip-Teasers make news! Libby Jones, Univ. of Wash'n alumna, now at the Miami Beach Place Pigalle, is asking Marlene Dietrich, Terry Moore, Debra Paget, Marguerite Piazza, Lisa Kirk, Marie McDonald, Marilyn Maxwell, Zsa Zsa Gabor, Mamie Van Doren, and others who display their figures, to join her in a union called "The Benevolent Association of Revealing Entertainers" — BAREs for short. Ex coed Dorian Dennis, who got a chemistry degree at N.Y.U. and strips soon at the French Casino here, is seconding the motion.

When Liz Taylor was at Grossinger's, she got a blister on her foot. Paul Grossinger phoned a doctor who said, "She has a blister on her foot? I'll get my stethoscope and be right over!"

Comedian Joe E. Lewis—who put $5,000 on Harriman to win—was playing gin at the Friars with Bobby Gordon when somebody said, "Harriman conceded." Joe said, "I always knew he was conceded" and kept on playing.

A Sinner Calls for Help! A woman reader in New Bedford, Mass., Hilda M. R. Ellison, asks me to pray a little for the newspapers to print more religious news — more items about "being good."

I told her that such news is generally dull — and that the lively writing should be collected, and then it should be used. The don't-be-good boys wrote funnier. Mark Twain, for example, wrote, "Be good and you'll be lonesome," and added, "Truth is the most valuable thing we have. Let us economize it." Wordsworth said, "The good die first."

I can't remember anybody writing anything very breath-taking about the exciting time they had listening to a sermon, although I must say I was a caution when I those Epworth League soppers. If you've got any witticisms, apoph-

"Angry Young Man" Playwright John Osborne is at war with a midtown hotel which, he charges, tried to bar Negro dancer-singer Josephine Premice (of "Jamaica") from a recent party he gave. He charges that after Miss Premice arrived at the party the hotel falsely insisted that they were boisterous and would have to break it up.

burgher John Geiger, who tangled with Gary Crosby in a knock-down-drag-out-roll-on-the-floor-rout at Milton Berle's recent party for Carl Sandburg, is no longer working for Kraft.

Producer Dore Schary is resisting all attempts of Hollywood's Production Code censors to trim a sequence from "Lonelyhearts" in which Maureen Stapleton "seduces" Monty Clift.

I TACKLED Dorothy Malone (nice tackling!) on the set of Fox's "Warlock" to ask her about her reported engagement and/or marriage to Jacques Bergerac and she countered with, "Never ask a leading lady leading questions!"

Miss malone's leading man, Dick Widmark, also got a job for his daughter's horse, Billy Whiskers, in the picture. Dick also got the horse an agent (MCA, no less!) and a salary of $30 a day.

VAN JOHNSON on the subject of being a perpetual juvenile: "My youthful looks are a curse—they keep me from getting strong leading man parts. Bob Cummings takes pills to look young. Me, I'm in the market for OLD-mysking pills!"

Linda Christian and Bella Darvi got into a hairpulling match and pulled off each other's French wigs over a boy friend YEARS younger than both dolls. . . . Ralph Edwards ducked out on a Look Magazine interview with this explanation: "I've had too much publicity already."

BUDDY BREGMAN is driving Anna Maria Alberg's car around Hollywood because his ex-wife, Gloria Haley Radovich, slapped an attachment on his — and O - gee - o - golly - o - posh. I'M HONORED. Witter Bynner, one of America's great poets, visited my Hollywood hillside hacienda and dubbed it "The Flying Carpet" with a magnum of champagne yet!

Minta Durfee Arbuckle, Pat's widow, has been sermonizing at Hollywood's Church of Religious Science. Subject: "The Woman Beautiful" . . . Child actor Bobbie Mahan is bicycling from his role as a town urchin in "Warlock" to his role as the corpse (the late Bobby Franks of Chicago, victim of Leopold and Loeb) in the concurrently-shooting "Compulsion."

CHATTER CHANNEL — Vivian Vance's United Fund-raising motorcycle was delayed when her motorcycle police escorts got an emergency call to rescue a cow that fell into a cesspool. . . . Vivian's pal Lucy Ball went to see "The Billy Barnes Revue" at Las Palmas, a Hollywood "little theatre," and liked it so much she took the entire cast out for a champagne supper.

Desilu's "My Father the Fool" wasn't one of those new taped teleshows but Rita Lynn, the leading lady, WAS — from head to toe, because of three broken ribs suffered in an auto accident two days before the show. But what a brilliant performance she gave in spite of it.

HUGH O'BRIEN signed up Lyle Wheeler, head of 20th-Fox's art department, to decorate his new home in Beverly Hills . . . John (Cinnarom City) Smith borrowed Barbara Nichols typewriter and forgot to return it when he moved. She complained. He typed this note to her: "I'm not through with your typewriter yet — besides, you can't write!"

It was a happy day for Mrs. Pate Lawford: she listened to the election returns (her brother Jack was re-elected Senator from Massachusetts) and welcomed a new daughter.

"Is stop asking why you need education, comrade pupils! . . . People in U.S. expect it of you, that's why! . . ."

Four Thefts Cleared by Arrest of 3

Village Youth,
Two Banning
Residents Held

Local police officers reported today they cleared at least four local thefts today as a result of the arrest of a teen-age boy on charges of suspicion of shoplifting.

As a result of the arrest, two other persons, a 16-year-old Banning youth and 32-year-old Frank Mendez of Banning were taken into custody and charged with suspicion of theft.

THE THREE REPORTEDLY took a set of knives from the Oriental Shop in the Plaza, were responsible for the theft of two suits from a parked car, and had taken other clothes from Beck Bros. Men's store and Carlos' Men's Shop.

Carl Derbonne, owner of Carlos' store, noticed the 17-year-old youth leave his store Saturday with something in his hands. He notified police and followed him. Police found a shirt in the youth's possession.

After questioning here, the boy was sent to juvenile hall in Riverside.

HIS ARREST LED police to Banning where they arrested Mendez and a 16-year-old boy, and in the house in which they were living were found the knives and the suits that had been taken from other Palm Springs stores.

The value of the goods reported taken by the three amounted to approximately $200, according to Det. Dick Larson and Juvenile Officer Steve Stevenson, who are in charge of investigation.

Garden variety millionaires will be amazed at what they see at the Racquet Club tomorrow night... for that Millionaire Party is sure to bring out every kind from Hetty Green to Diamond Jim Brady... and the Club management is only hoping that the polo player millionaire can be persuaded to leave his horse outside... and that the yachtsman won't try to park his yacht in the Club's swimming pool... There will be Cadillacs all over the place (as usual)... and money will be growing on trees (as table ornaments)... And all the millionaires will be trying to increase their wealth... by guessing how much money is in that fish bowl... filled with one dollar and five dollar bills (play money)... Could be $10,000... could be $50,000...

Chief interest will center about the costumes... but actually the members and their guests will be living like millionaires that night... dining on Racquet Club's superb cuisine... drinking Texan mixed concoctions... dancing to the music of Teddy Noel's orchestra (he'll definitely be here for the occasion)... You don't have to be a millionaire to live like one in Palm Springs... but it does help...

With Charlie and Virginia Farrell will be the Sherman Hulls and Thunderbird's Edgar Schills... With the Bill Powells will be the Tom Mays, Ralph Kinners, Mrs. Sam Briskin, Clark Bramwell (Francesca is in Cedars in traction)...

Mrs. Ed Rothbart is hosting a group... and the Maurie Horners will have a table for 10... Dr. and Mrs. Robert Morrey will have 10 guests... and the Asher Levys are entertaining a few friends including Veva Selig (Lester is in New York)... Reginald Venable and his wife Fay Bainter will be there... The Harold Murphys will be with the Earl Hendersons...

The Frank Bennetts... who always get in the party mood with their costumes... (remember Frank as Liberace?... and Melba's Charleston outfit?)... will be at the party... the Ed Silvermans... Dorothy Gray Brown (Harry Joe's in Montreal)... the Frank Chilson of Palm Desert... the George Friedmans of Los Angeles with Walter Heyman (he's president of the First National Bank of Chicago)... Peggy Bull's escort will be Bill Brennan, station relations manager for CBS Hollywood... Bill has just been back in New York for the CBS Affiliate convention... Edith Eddy Ward has a table for four... and all the usual merry crowd will be there... and dressed to spend...

Even with the diningroom and cocktail lounge not in operation (and HOW they are missed)... Marion Davies Desert Inn continues to be the scene of much activity... Marion Davies and her husband Capt. Horace Brown entertained at cocktails and dinner Saturday night in the Inn's Colonial House... honoring artist Henry Clive... who is completing his series of murals for Miss Davies' Von Dehn Road home... James Maher arrived this weekend from Steamboat Springs, Connecticut... to join his wife Mary (the former Mary Walker) who used to own the Ralph Wilcox Taylor house on Tahquitz... Mary is here for the winter... but is commuting to San Dimas weekly to be with her mother... who is under medical care... George and Margaret Brock of Beverly Hills spent a quiet weekend at the Inn... resting up from arduous pre-election work... Mrs. Brock is a Republican National Committee Woman... Other season guests already arrived... include Mrs. Crittenden H. Adams and the Reverend Mrs. Hazel Rogers Gredler... both of Yarmouthport, Massachusetts...

Mrs. Gredler is the Minister Emeritus of the Unitarian Church Society of Massachusetts... Harold and Florence Murphy have leased the penthouse occupied by the Tom Flemings last winter... and will remain until they go north to Tahoe for the summer season... The Inn has been making many changes in the spacious suite... so Florence may display her many treasures collected during their European trips...

The Julian Bambergers of Salt Lake City have made reservations for the cottage occupied by Gov. Herbert Lehman...

The Palm Springs Club still meets in its clubrooms... Press Club headquarters are still there but not in use because of the lack of food and drinks... The Art Exhibit adds color to the Desert Inn grounds as in previous years... and this past weekend the whole place was overrun with visiting Jaycees and their wives from all over the state...

An interesting dinner foursome at Firecliff the other evening... Ralph and Nancy Kiner... Bill and Mousie Powell... Saw a old movie of Bill's... on television naturally... and still think he's a great loss to the screen... and that he'll never be replaced as the Thin Man... or maybe... just never be replaced is what I mean...

Lebanese Consul Guest of Honor At Sunday Buffet
Dr. and Mrs. M. W. Ades entertained Sunday afternoon in their home on Palo Verde Avenue in honor of the Lebanese Consul Robert Beetar of Portland, Oregon, who is vacationing in the Village... The Oriental motif was carried out in the decorations and the beautiful buffet table was laden with an assortment of Near Eastern delicacies... Among the many guests were Phillip Doumatt, Portland; Simon Tamer, Chula Vista; Francis Hanna, Johnstown; Hattie Lewis and son Tom of El Cajon, Mrs. Ann Braheme, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thomas and sons, Richard and Phillip, Mr. and Mrs. George Thomas and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Keith all of Indio... Also: Mrs. Ann Minnot and daughter, Cindy of Los Angeles and from Palm Springs, Messrs. and Mmes. Fred Spannheke, J. Hanna and son Mark, Jack Alexander and son Joe, E. Braheme and daughter Jeanne, Joyce and Janet King, Dr. and Mrs. J. Bowman, Dr. and Mrs. George Milkie and children, Paul, Pam and Patty, Dr. and Mrs. R. Baddour and children Raymond and Ann Marie.

House President
Alexandra Grant, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick J. Grant, Smoke Tree Ranch, and a senior at Pine Manor Junior College, Wellesley, Mass., was recently elected house president.

School District Boundaries To Be Discussed Nov. 17

Proposed changes in the boundary line dividing the Palm Springs and Cabazon school districts will be discussed at the Nov. 17 meeting of the Riverside County Committee on School District Organization.

The association meetings is scheduled for 1:30 p.m. in the board room of the County Board of Education offices at Riverside. Association members will study possibilities of shifting the boundary line which now passes through the center of Palm Springs Oasis, dividing the tract located at the northern Palm Springs City limits.

Under current boundaries, students living in one side of the tract are able to attend Palm Springs school while students in the other half are in the Cabazon district and may attend local schools only through special dispensation.

Roland Richter Named New Manager of Oasis Hotel

Oasis Hotel will have a new manager this year, Roland Richter, who comes to Palm Springs from the Northwest. This hotel long has been noted for luring many prominent business, civic and social leaders from the Northwest for long winter holidays, and now Mr. and Mrs. Richter will be on hand to greet these and all the guests arriving at the Oasis.

Dewey W. Metzdorf, who formerly owned the Oasis and for the past few years has managed the hotel after he sold his interests to Western Hotels Inc., and became a vice president of that hotel management organization, will make his headquarters at the Mayfair Hotel in Los Angeles. He and his wife are keeping a suite at the Oasis and plan to spend as much time as possible here this winter.

RICHTER COMES directly from management of Western's Cascadian Hotel in Wenatchee, Wash. He has been with the Western organization more than 15 years, and formerly headed their Commercial Hotel in Yakima Wash., and for many years was with the Olympic Hotel in Seattle.

He is a member of the Kiwanis Club, and attended the University of Washington where he met and married the former Jane Horsfall, who lived in Seattle and was a member of Gamma Phi Beta sorority at the university.

METZDORF'S NEW duties are as head of Western's new Caravan Inn division, which this fall opened headquarters in the Mayfair, Los Angeles. According to S. W. Thurston, president of Western Hotels, four new motor inns have been taken over by the operating company. This brings to six the number now being operated by Western in California, two in Bakersfield, others in Riverside, San Jose, Lancaster and West Covina.

"These properties are of the garden-resort type, featuring swimming pools, air conditioning, television and de luxe restaurants and beverage facilities," Thurston said.

Dawson and Miss Tarble scored a low gross 74 for the Sunday outing which attracted a field of 64 golfers. Thirty six holes of medal play are scheduled, 18 on Saturday and 18 on Sunday.

Bettenhausen wins USAC Championship

PHOENIX, Ariz. — (UPI) — Tony Bettenhausen of Tinley Park, Ill., won the United States Auto Club championship Tuesday despite a second place finish in the 100-mile Bobby Ball Memorial Race.

Bettenhausen was second to Jud Larsen of Tampa, Fla., but was ahead on points for the championship.

The California signal caller also led his team to the total offense and rushing leads for PCC teams, according to official statistics released today.

But he couldn't do much about a leaky Bear defense which placed the league leaders eighth in the nine-team loop in that department.

Kapp has a total yardage output of 926 yards, compared to 649 for Bob Hivner of Washington and 604 for Stanford's Bob Nicolet. Kapp was also the top rusher with 470 yards, averaging 4.4 yards on 107 carries, compared to 405 yards for second place Charles Morrell of Washington State. Willie West of Oregon holds down third with 375 yards.

The prolonged absence because of injury of Bob Newman, Washington State star, enabled Nicolet to take over the passing lead. Nicolet has completed 62 passes in 117 tries for 598 yards.

"Go all the way" — praising a runner who will continue unmoored to the goal line if he ever gets past the secondary.

"Plenty of desire" — meaning we'll show up for every game the rest of the season even if we still don't score a point.

"Play 'em one game at a time" — This coach doesn't want to make any predictions whatsoever and he's really afraid that he'll live until Saturday. Also a World Series favorite of certain managers whose first names are "Fred" and whose second names are "Haney."

"HE COULD make any team in the country." — Used widely in boosting your own boy for All-America or in pumping up a lackluster rival lucky enough to have one player who doesn't possess two left feet.

"This will go right down to the wire" — Race track parlance for a close contest in which the coach secretly expects to have a run-away which will prove he is a true genius of the gridiron.

"Any team can win on a given Saturday" — Which, in all fairness, proves why you can't win those office pools.

Grid Coaches Adept At the Double Talk

By OSCAR FRALEY, United Press International
NEW YORK (UPI)—Football coaches are a hard-breed who, you may have noticed, feel called upon to use as much deception in their public pronouncements as they would in an offense featuring 11 mid-gets against the Chicago Bears.

There is in their specialized craft a legendary lexicon for the loser, potential or past tense. And there is a pat phraseology for the winner, past tense or potential.

Each has his favorite quotations, and, unless you are an adept translator of double talk, you'll wind up making as much sense as a Hottentot studying Brooklynese.

HERE ARE SOME of the clichés which get the most mileage: "Our kids are really 'up'" — this, naturally, should be applied only to players for the Air Force Academy while doing jet training or to the champions of the Swiss yodelers conference. But the monotony and frequency of its use suggests that football now is a game played on pogo sticks. Conversely, when the "kids are 'down'" you can be certain that the alumni is in full cry.

"It's the bounce of the ball" — a football is an oblate spheroid rather pointed at both ends. As such it "takes some crazy bounces." Ordinarily this phrase is used when you've just had the he-jabbers kicked out of you and don't know what else to say. A rare occurrence among coaches.

"It's 11 men against 11 men" — building up an opponent, such as when Army plays Embraceable U., and you want the customers to come out and pony up in the hopes of seeing a miracle.

"THEY ALL PUT their pants on one leg at a time" — designed to convince your hopeless heroes that the other team doesn't have 22 men on the field at once, despite the bruises and 101-0 defeat.

"Go all the way" — praising a runner who will continue unmoored to the goal line if he ever gets past the secondary.

"Plenty of desire" — meaning we'll show up for every game the rest of the season even if we still don't score a point.

"Play 'em one game at a time" — This coach doesn't want to make any predictions whatsoever and he's really afraid that he'll live until Saturday. Also a World Series favorite of certain managers whose first names are "Fred" and whose second names are "Haney."

Kapp Holds Big Lead in Offense

LOS ANGELES — (UPI) — Quarterback Joe Kapp, leading Pacific Coast Conference candidate for All-America football honors, held a substantial lead today in individual total offense and was comfortably ahead in the rushing department.

Ryff 8-5 Over Perkins Tonight

CHICAGO — (UPI) — Frankie Ryff's "comeback" campaign aimed at either the world lightweight or welterweight championship, runs into a go-for-broke opponent tonight when the New York star faces Chicago's Eddie Perkins in a televised 10-round bout.

Ryff, trying for his sixth straight win and his 28th in 33 pro fights, was an 8-5 favorite, mostly because he has had more than twice as many fights as Perkins, who at 21 is five years younger than his foe.

Both Ryff and his new manager, onetime lightweight champion Barney Ross, believed he would win to possibly move back into the top ten lightweight rankings. But Perkins, who has scored as many knockouts in 15 pro bouts as Ryff in 32, could upset, and he planned to do so.

HORTON HONORED
CLEARWATER, Fla. — (UPI) — Two-time Masters winner Horton Smith of Detroit was installed as the newest member of golf's Hall of Fame Tuesday night.

Disqualification Mars International

LAUREL, Md. — (UPI) — A. G. (Bert) Dobb, who sold Sailor's Guide to Dr. Leon Levy of Philadelphia following the Australian horse's victory in the Washington D.C. International, today declared he would not have entered a foul claim against Tudor Era's jockey.

Tudor Era, one of the two American entries in Tuesday's classic at Laurel, finished 3½ lengths ahead of Sailor's Guide but was disqualified for bumping the Australian horse on the stretch turn and placed second.

The foul claim, upheld by the stewards, was made by Howard Grant, the American rider of Sailor's Guide, against jockey Willie Harmatz on Tudor Era.

HOWEVER, DIBB later appeared quite surprised at Grant's action.

"In our country," the Australian horseman said, "the jockey is not permitted to claim foul without permission from the owner or trainer of the horse."

"I would not have given that permission," Dobb added. Because of Grant's foul claim, the official result of the race was held up almost a half hour while the stewards studied movies of the race and also conferred with both riders.

Satisfied that Grant's objection was justified, the stewards ordered the disqualification of Tudor Era and awarded the winner's purse of $70,000 to Dobb. The Australian sportsman, who purchased Sailor's Guide for only $1,750 as a yearling, then turned around and sold the horse to Levy for a reported $55,000.

LEVY SAID he will race Sailor's Guide in California next winter and then will retire the horse to stud at the conclusion of the 1959 campaign.

The seventh edition of the International was the most dramatic—and roughest — in its brief history. The start was delayed seven minutes as the 10 horses from seven countries jostled each other while their riders vied for a good "jump" from the walk-up. Tudor Era got the best jump and led every step of the way in the mile and one-half journey. Zaryad, one of the Russian invaders, dwelt at the start and never got into the "chase," winding up last.

Garnir, the other Russian entry, raced with the leaders during the early stages and then fell back to finish sixth.

BALLYMOSS, Ireland's "wonder horse" who was the favorite of a record Maryland racing crowd of 40,276, turned in a disappointing performance, finishing almost four lengths off the pace in third place. He, too, ran into traffic trouble.

Tharp, another Irish entry ridden by Eddie Arcaro, finished fourth and was followed home by Germany's Orsini, Garnir, Venezuela's Escribano, America's Cien, Argentina's Revoque and Zaryad.

CHRISTMAS CAME EARLY in Palm Springs as Mrs. Lela Mandy receives a new Lincoln Continental as a gift from her husband, Raymond L. Mandy. For the presentation, which was a complete and overwhelming surprise for Mrs. Mandy, the luxurious auto was "wrapped up" with bright red ribbon and tied with a huge bow. Here Mrs. Mandy receives the keys to her car from Palm Springs Lincoln-Mercury salesman Chris Cracraft, center, as Mandy, right, proudly looks on. Residents of Monrovia, where he is secretary-treasurer of Southern California Pipe Co., the Mandys also maintain a weekend and holiday residence here at Beckley's Trailer Park. New Lincoln Continentals and Mercurys will be on display at Palm Springs Lincoln-Mercury Friday, Nov. 14.

Them as Has, Gets

Rockefeller to Get $50,000 A Year, Same as Week Now

By JACK V. FOX
United Press International

NEW YORK — UPI — Them as has, gets, the old saying goes. But for Nelson Rockefeller it hardly seems worthwhile.

Rockefeller, today the brightest star in the Republican Party, has a new job as governor of New York with rent free and a yearly salary of $50,000 starting Jan. 1.

That is almost as much as he now makes in a week.

AND THE GOVERNOR'S mansion may not impress a man who already has a 32-room apartment overlooking Central Park, a home on the 3,000-acre ancestral estate near Tarrytown, N.Y.; an 860-acre Venezuelan farm where he now is vacationing and a summer "cottage" at Bar Harbor, Me.

The words Rockefeller and money are almost inseparable. Nelson is by far the richest man ever to hold high elective office in America.

His personal fortune is estimated at more than 100 million dollars, the bulk inherited from the estate of the fabulous John D.

CAREFULLY INVESTED at 4 per cent, that amount would return 4 million dollars a year or about $80,000 a week. But Nelson's share of gifts by the Rockefeller clan figures out to about $20,000 a week so he only has a net of $60,000.

If he paid straight income tax on that, it would be sliced way down to only $6,800 weekly.

Accepting the governorship means he will have to resign the two board chairmanships which in the past few years have occupied most of his time.

ONE IS HEAD OF Rockefeller Center, Inc. The great cluster of skyscrapers in midtown Manhattan is now valued at 125 million dollars, but is not for sale at any price.

The other is chairman of the International Basic Economy Corp., a sort of personal Point Four program. It runs supermarkets in Italy, sells instant coffee in Salvador, makes automatic devices in New Jersey, builds housing projects in Puerto Rico and finances small auto loans in Venezuela.

LAST YEAR IT showed a profit of $1,214,891. Rockefeller owns most of the $16 million worth of stock.

His main income still comes from Standard Oil stock but he has no role in running the company more than the voting power of a large stockholder. Many people still come to the Rockefellers mistakenly with criticisms and ideas about Standard Oil.

Nelson is also a member of 18 boards of directors. He owns 1,500 pieces of primitive art and a large collection of modern paintings.

IT TOOK AN HOUR'S conversation with his father, John D. Jr., on the evening of Dec. 10, 1946, to get 8.5 million dollars to purchase land on New York's East Side and donate it as the site for the permanent headquarters of the United Nations.

One of his few setbacks came last year when the Brooklyn Dodgers moved to Los Angeles despite his offer to donate 3 million dollars toward building a new stadium for the team.

HIS FATHER IS estimated to be worth more than 500 million dollars. Each of his four brothers and his one sister are believed to be just about as wealthy as Nelson.

"I personally think money is a tool," he says. "If used constructively it can be of tremendous assistance in facilitating the accomplishments of a great many things. Money can also be a sharp destructive tool. It all depends on the way you use it."

Anxiety-Tension Complex Termed 'Greatest Plague'

"The thing wrong with Americans today is an anxiety-tension complex, and it is referred to by doctors as the greatest modern plague."

So said Dr. Norman Vincent Peale, minister, author and lecturer, who spoke to more than 600 people in attendance at the Rotary Club luncheon at the Chi Chi.

DR. PEALE MADE his third visit to Palm Springs and on each trip he extolls the advantages of desert living away from the "hub-bub" of big city life. "I like to go out into the desert and just sit in the car and listen to the silence," said the minister, whose book "The Power of Positive Thinking" is now selling around its 2,000,000th edition.

And on his visit to the desert this year, he came up with the title of his new book, and announced it to the audience. It will be called "The Amazing Results of Positive Thinking."

State of Siege Declared Today In Argentina

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (UPI)—A state of siege has been declared in Argentina for 30 days as a "preventive measure to maintain order," the Ministry of Interior announced today.

Informed sources said President Arturo Frondizi signed the decree placing the entire nation under modified martial law early today in the crisis boiling up from an oil workers strike in Mendoza Province.

Federal police rounded up an undisclosed number of dissident elements, particularly Communists and Peronists, in pre-dawn raids in Buenos Aires, La Plata, Rosario and Mercedes.

Unofficial reports said more than 300 persons were arrested. The strike was touched off by oil workers' opposition to contracts with foreign companies, particularly American, for development of Argentina's oil industry.

County Water Officials Visit Coachella Valley

Members of the Riverside County Water Association were guided on a desert tour this week by Lowell Weeks manager of the Coachella Valley Water District.

The association, now meeting in various parts of the county "to acquaint itself with local problems," met at Indio's Desert Vendome before starting the tour.

Association officials also announced plans for the annual association water conference in Riverside's Mission Inn Dec. 18.

County C of C To Meet Nov. 18

THOUSAND PALMS — Members of the Thousand Palms Chamber of Commerce will host this month's meeting of the Riverside County Association of Chambers of Commerce.

The association meeting is scheduled for Nov. 18, at Desert Moon Ranch. Indio Realtor Lloyd Loveland will discuss the future of Riverside County.

Infant Found in Woods

WAUKEGAN, Ill. — (UPI) — Peter Poulos, Lake County deputy sheriff, stopped his automobile on a lonely road northwest of here to check a tire, heard a baby cry, walked into a nearby woods and found a newborn baby girl wrapped in a cloth. Attendants at the hospital where he took her said the child was about two hours old and in good condition.

his column in Look magazine, the doctor said that too many people have a negative outlook "and hence will draw a negative atmosphere."

As an example of his teachings, Dr. Peale told of a personal experience in which he and some other men started a new magazine called "Guidepost." It is written for all faiths—Catholic, Protestant and Jewish—and dedicated to the holding of these faiths together. Dr. Peale pointed out that the Communists "would like to divide these faiths and have them fighting one another."

THE MAGAZINE WAS not a success at first, for few if any of its promoters believed that it would work. After a short period of time they got together and talked over their situation and started anew, thinking positively of its success "and this automatically drew a positive atmosphere which was a contributing factor to the later success of the magazine."

"Guidepost" now has a circulation of 1,000,000 copies. A small printed sign on a taxi-cab dashboard in New York City, which said "If you can keep your head in the midst of this confusion—you don't understand the situation," drew a specific remark by the famous minister. When he arrived at his destination he handed the cab driver another card on which was written his slogan for positive thinking—"The Peace of God that Passes All Understanding."

CHAMPAGNE—For the holiday season the use of Champagne will simplify your beverage problems. Champagne is so versatile. Served as an aperitif; all through a dinner; with dessert or instead of dessert; with a late supper; to avoid air or sea sickness; Champagne is without equal. The hostess need never worry whether the wine will compliment her menu, for Champagne superbly enhances practically any food. Before breakfast or the morning after fresh caviar on toast and a split of well chilled Champagne will turn a gray morning into a Spring day.

Americans seem to reserve Champagne for festive occasions; but it is definitely entitled to more frequent use. The weight of business cares are vivaciously lifted on the bubbles in a glass of Champagne.

Champagne is a tonic prescribed to awaken appetites, sooth post-operative conditions and generally brighten interest in life. The Encyclopedia Britannica says: "Champagne is not only the most fascinating of wines but one of the most wholesome. Its carbonic acid gas is self-generated; it ferments part of the wine itself and renders it exceedingly valuable in all cases of digestive troubles."

When you send gifts of Champagne, warm thanks will follow because about everyone is thrilled with Champagne. As a gift it is indicative of refinement, smartness, good taste and a compliment to all. What a wonderful way to honor business associates. Sale's Market carries a very complete line of Champagnes from the Imported finest French vintage and non vintage to some very good Domestic wines. Come in and let us help you select the Champagne or other wines to suit your requirements. It costs little if any more to serve Champagne.
